

We conclude this experiment by finding out the operating voltage which, for us, is $V_{op} = 825V$. We also perform the counting statistics, and we see that the counting statistics is quite similar to a gaussian.