

In this experiment, we aim to determine the characteristic curve for a Geiger Muller Counter and find out its operating voltage. We then use the operating voltage to perform counting statistics for a source at that Voltage.